What is the Edible Book Contest?

Waukesha Public Library's Edible Book Contest is back! This highly anticipated event will take place on Saturday, April 1.

Join Waukesha's celebration of books, art, food, and culture. Participants create an "edible book," which can be inspired by a favorite tale, involve a pun on a famous title, or simply be in the shape of a book.

Brew-Tea and the Beets

Bookworm

Who can participate?

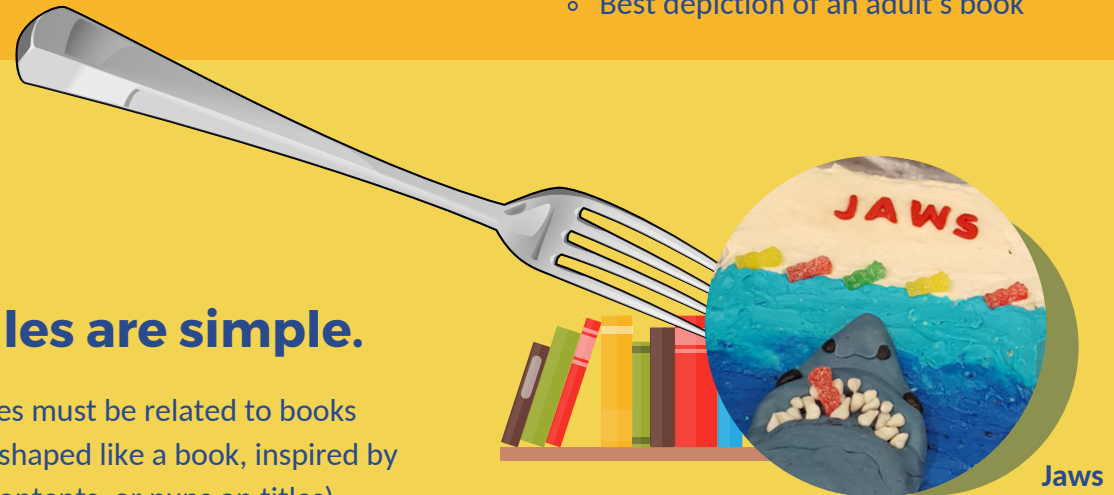

Anyone, including Library staff. To register, submit the attached form or use our online event calendar.

Not interested in creating an entry? No problem! You can still view and vote for your favorites.

Prizes and Categories

Prizes will be awarded for the following categories:

- Best in show ($50 Visa Gift Card)
- Punniest/Funniest
- Most creative use of ingredients
- Most likely to be eaten
- Best depiction of a children's book
- Best depiction of an adult's book

Jaws

The Rules are simple.

- 1 Entries must be related to books (e.g. shaped like a book, inspired by the contents, or puns on titles).
- 2 All ingredients must be edible. Non-edible bases, toothpicks, metal stakes, etc. may be used for structure.
- 3 Entries cannot require additional care, such as refrigeration.

Need some inspiration?

Please Note:

By entering this contest, you are agreeing to have photographs of your entries taken which may appear on the Library's website, social media, and print publications.

If you don't take your entry home at the end of the contest, it will be discarded.
